This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

IN SENATE,

JANUARY 14, 1886.

SIXTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NEW YORK STATE LIBRARY.

To the Legislature of the State of New York:

I have the honor to transmit herewith the Sixty-eighth Annual Report of the Trustees of the New York State Library.

H. R. PIERSON,

Chancellor.

OFFICE OF THE REGENTS, January 13, 1886.

REPORT.

To the Legislature of the State of New York:

The trustees of the New York State Library, pursuant to the provisions of law, submit to the Legislature their Sixty-eighth Annual Report.

The growth of the library is shown in the following summary of the additions made during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1885.

At the beginning of the year October 1, 1884:	Volumes.
In the general library	88,002
In the law library	35,955
Total	123,957

Added during the year ending September 30, 1885:
To the general library	2,098
To the law library	1,345
Total	3,443

At the close of the year ending September 30, 1885:
In the general library	90,100
In the law library	37,300
Total	127,400

Of the additions to the library:
Acquired by purchase	1,931
Acquired by donation and exchange	1,512
Total	3,443

Besides the additions mentioned above the trustees desire to report the completion of the purchase and the acquirement of a complete title for the Tompkins papers, for the purchase of which the Legislature of 1884 made an appropriation of $5,000. Since the papers have been received they have been re-examined carefully and their value to the historical collections of the library has become more than ever manifest.

The trustees regret to report that owing to the death of Hon. George W. Clinton, the work on the George Clinton papers was temporarily suspended. This work for which Judge Clinton had peculiar personal and mental qualifications had been carried on by him to a good degree of forwardness. It has been difficult to find a suitable person to continue and complete this work of editing and indexing the Clinton papers. Fortunately they have found Paul Fenimore Cooper, Esq., a lawyer who by habits of historical investigation and taste for such researches is well fitted for such a work, willing to take such time from his profession as he can spare for completing Judge Clinton's work. He has accordingly entered on this work and it is hoped that within the coming year it can be finished.

The accumulation of valuable historical manuscripts in the library has already made it one of the most important collections for historical study. The Vermont manuscripts purchased from Henry Stearns of London, the Sir William Johnson papers, the George Clinton papers, the Tompkins papers, and the historical manuscripts transferred from the offices of the Secretary of State and Comptroller to the State Library, make the library rich in material illustrating the history of the State. Its value to the student, however, will almost wholly depend on the arrangement and preparation of the papers so that they may be consulted. In part this has been done, but on the other hand nothing has been done to utilize the Vermont manuscripts or the Tompkins papers. Years of work will be required to make these and the other collections available for the use of the ordinary historical student. Indeed there is continuous need in such a library as the New York State Library for a competent man to continue the work which Judge Clinton was doing for the George Clinton papers. The trustees earnestly request that the appropriation made through several years for the work on the Clinton papers be continued and made a permanent part of the library appropriation.

In view of the near prospect of removing the library into its new quarters the trustees desire to call attention to the fact that in the plans of the library as it has been necessary to arrange them in the quarters assigned it has not been possible to secure a compact arrangement of the books on one floor, but it has been necessary to carry the arrangement through two stories and to make subdivisions of these stories by subordinate floors. While the space secured for the books is for the present ample and in many respects admirably arranged, it is evident that the service of the library will entail much greater labor on the part of the staff than heretofore. In addition to this it is to be remembered that the arrangement and settlement of the library in its new place must involve special labor far beyond the usual service of the library. Besides this there are certain departments of the library work, such as the arrangement and assorting of pamphlets into volumes, the correspondence in reference to exchanges and the purchase of books, which have gradually increased until they have outgrown the most industrious efforts of the present force. All this points inevitably to an increase in the staff of the library. No such important library has ever been conducted with so small a staff, and the time has come when it is no longer possible to properly administer this trust without additional help.

For the full explanation of the operation of the library during the past year the trustees refer to the reports of the librarians and the catalogues of additions made during the year.

APPENDIX I.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN OF THE GENERAL LIBRARY.

To the Regents of the University, Trustees of the State Library:

The number of volumes added to the general library during the twelve months ending September 30, 1885, is 2,098, making the whole number of volumes in this department of the library 90,100. Of these 2,098 volumes, 1,165 were obtained by purchase and 933 by donation or exchange.

It must be repeated, in this report, as was mentioned last year, that the library remains in its temporary quarters, and is likely to continue in the same rooms for one or two years longer, so far as can be judged from the indications.

Since the death of Vice Chancellor Judge Clinton, the collection of the Clinton Manuscripts, which have been in his keeping in the room in the Capitol which he occupied while indexing them, has been restored to the library. The whole number of volumes belonging to the continuous set of these MSS. is now fifty-two volumes folio. Of these, fourteen volumes had never been seen by Judge Clinton, having been bound and added to the library since his death. The volumes first submitted to Judge Clinton to index were twenty-three, which had been in the library for many years. To each of these, a chronological calendar had been made more than thirty years since by Orville Dewey, and bound with it, constituting a brief analytical table of contents of each paper. To these twenty-three volumes which had a calendar, Judge Clinton completed and arranged in alphabetical order a subject-index, each heading being followed by some detail. His manuscript fills 1,900 pages folio, and if the handwriting seems obscure at first, it will soon become clear and intelligible to one familar with it. The copiousness of the index may be inferred from the fact that 150 pages of the manuscript are devoted to members of the Clinton family.

In the additional fifteen volumes committed to his care from a later purchase, Judge Clinton has continued an analytical calendar, similar to the one in the first twenty-three volumes. It averages fifteen folio pages to a volume, or 225 pages in all. These new fifteen volumes and the additional fourteen volumes just placed by their side, require a subject-index to be prepared for them similar to the one for the first twenty-three volumes. These fourteen volumes, from volume 39 to volume 52, are chiefly Gov. George Clinton's land papers, being lands in various counties in the sale of which he and his partners were interested. The titles given to the volumes on their backs will illustrate the character and extent of the information which they may be expected to furnish regarding early settlers and titles in the counties named. The titles read, volume 39, New York city, Greenwich street; 40, 41, 42, Kayaderoseras Patent; 43, 44, Dutchess County, Little Nine Partners; 45, Fonda and Oriskany Patents; 46, Onondaga and Delaware County Lands; 47, Various Counties; 48, 49, Miscellaneous; 50, 51, 52, Deeds and Maps. The process of completing the subject-index to the Clinton papers will require, to blend the indexes to be made for the last twenty-nine volumes with the index made for the first twenty-three volumes, which can only be done by cutting up the 1,900 pages, so that the old and new indexes can be arranged under one alphabet, when the whole can be engrossed in a fresh copy in one volume, similar to that of the subject-index to the Sir William Johnson papers.

The character of the additions to the library during the past year resemble those of preceding years, being principally topics of American and family history, of legislation and of political economy. The two additions besides, worthy of especial mention, are the ninety publications of the Early English Text Society from 1860 to 1883, which have been bound in sixty volumes octavo; and Siebmacher's Wappenbuch, or, General Book of Arms for all Germany and its associated kingdoms, duchies and free towns, which has been bound in twenty-four volumes quarto. This is a newly arranged and greatly enlarged edition with heraldic and genealogical extensions of this standard work, elaborated by a company of six editors at Nuremburg, with many hundred plates. The edition was commenced in 1856, and the work is not yet completed. A collection of several hundred pamphlets lately purchased and printed in Mexico, chiefly between the years 1860 and 1875, furnishes abundant sources of information regarding the condition of that neighboring republic in many varied aspects.

We are engaged at present, so far as the only two assistants in the library can carry on the work, in making a single manuscript card-catalogue of all the books and pamphlets in the library, such a catalogue being a very important means of lessening the labor of the librarians in the use of the existing records of the contents of the library, when called upon to make a search for a reader. As things are at present, a question relative to a book may demand a reference to the two printed catalogues of the years of 1855, and 1861, and to the two manuscript catalogues of the additions since that time and for the current year, and consumes a great deal of time. This work will proceed very slowly until the Legislature provides the much needed additional service in the library. All which is respectfully submitted,

HENRY A. HOMES,
Librarian of the General Library.

APPENDIX II.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN OF THE LAW LIBRARY.

STATE LIBRARY, December 31, 1885.

To the Regents of the University of the State of New York:

The number of volumes added to the law department of the library during the library year ending September 30, 1885, is one thousand three hundred and forty-five, of which seven hundred and sixty-six volumes were acquired by purchase, and five hundred and seventy-nine volumes were acquired by donation and exchange. The number of volumes added to the law library as above stated, exceeds that of any preceding year within the last thirty years, and is accounted for by the fact that over three hundred volumes of state papers are included in the additions, which were published during previous years but were not received and placed in the library until last year.

The effort to supply deficiencies existing in the collection of American' statute law has been continued, and has resulted in the addition of sixty rare volumes of the session laws of eighteen States and Territories. By reason of the extreme rarity of the volumes desired, some time must elapse before we can hope to have completed this collection, although it does not appear that more than eighty volumes are now wanted for this purpose.

The British parliamentary papers of the sessions of 1881, 1882 and 1883, comprising 270 volumes, have been bound in 140 volumes and placed upon the shelves, which increases the total number of volumes of these papers in the library collection to 1,563.

One hundred and fifty trials have been added, of which ninety-six have been bound in separate volumes. A large addition has been made of law pamphlets, including forty legal arguments by prominent Mexican jurists upon important questions of Mexican law.

The Honorable Benjamin D. Silliman of Brooklyn, has presented to the law library, through Mr. L. B. Proctor, a photograph of the Justices of the Superior Court of the city of New York, taken in the year 1855. The court was then composed of Chief Justice Thomas J. Oakley (the author of the Act of 1818 which established the State Library), and Justices John Duer, William W. Campbell, Joseph S. Bosworth, Murray Hoffman and John Slosson. This gift to the library is an exceedingly interesting one, and its value is only equaled by the thoughtfulness and generosity of the donor.

In the report of a select committee of your honorable body, which was approved and adopted by the trustees on January 10, 1879, the following language occurs in reference to the law library:

"The scope of the law department of the library has been and should continue to be a broad one. This now stands among the very first libraries of the country. It is believed to be nearly, if not quite complete in its collection of law reports of the federal courts of the United States, of the highest courts of the several States and of Great Britain, as well as of the statutes of the several States. These make up its greatest value, and of those reports and statutes its collection should be made and kept absolutely complete. In addition to these, all really standard elementary works touching all departments of municipal law within Great Britain and the United States, together with a reasonable supply of digests, books of practice and law books of like character should be kept up. Outside of these, the law library to maintain its proper standing as a completely appointed law library, should contain the leading authorities upon subjects of international and ecclesiastical law, the Roman law, and the laws of the modern continental nations of Europe, especially of France, Germany, Holland and the free cities. A law library is valuable only as it is complete and all embracing in volumes liable to be cited by way of authority or illustration."

In view of this expression of your honorable body, the librarian desires to state, that the rapid increase of law publications renders it certain that a much larger annual appropriation for the purchase of books than has hitherto been made, will be required in the near future, to maintain the law library at the standard above set forth.

Respectfully submitted,

STEPHEN B. GRISWOLD,
Librarian of the Law Library.

STATE OF NEW YORK.

No. 15.

IN SENATE,

JANUARY 15, 1887.

SIXTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

NEW YORK STATE LIBRARY.

OFFICE OF THE REGENTS,
January, 15, 1886.

To the Legislature of the State of New York:

I have the honor to transmit herewith the Sixty-ninth Annual Report of the Trustees of the New York State Library, as required by law.

GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS,
Vice-Chancellor.

REPORT.

To the Legislature of the State of New York:

The Regents of the University, trustees of the New York State Library, pursuant to the provisions of law, submit to you their Sixty-ninth Annual Report.

The following summary will show the additions that have been made to the Library during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1886:

At the beginning of the year October 1, 1885:	Volumes.
In the general library	90,100
In the law library	37,300
Total	127,400
Added during the year ending September 30, 1886:
To the general library	2,130
To the law library	1,275
Total	3,405
At the close of the year ending September 30, 1886:
In the general library	92,230
In the law library	38,575
Total	130,805
Of the additions to the library:
Acquired by purchase	1,877
Acquired by donation and exchange	1,528
Total	3,405

Besides the additions which are included in the summary above, the trustees desire to report that they have procured for the library a collection of historical manuscripts owned in the city of Kingston. They are chiefly letters and papers which were in the revolutionary times and in the times immediately subsequent in the possession of

Mr. Van Gasbeck. The collection contains a Broadside, giving Benedict Arnold's reasons for his treason to the American colonies. It also contains papers by Aaron Burr and by other distinguished men of the revolutionary and post-revolutionary period. The collection was acquired for the library at a cost of one hundred and twenty-five dollars. These papers, together with those already in the possession of the library, go far toward rendering the New York State Library a place of great interest and value for persons engaged in the historical periods of this State and country.

Since making the preceding report, the historical manuscripts of the library have been chiefly transferred to the room in the southwest corner of the new capitol building. They are under the care of Mr. Berthold Fernow.

The failure of the Legislature to make an appropriation to continue the work on the capitol has made it necessary for the library to continue in the temporary quarters to which it was transferred when the old library building was torn down. The rooms for the law library are nearly finished, and the rooms for the general library have made a very considerable progress. The trustees hope before another report is made to the Legislature to be able to transfer both departments of the library to their permanent rooms.

The trustees regret very deeply that during a part of the present year the library has been without the care of its distinguished chief, Dr. Henry A. Homes. Owing to severe illness he has been unable to attend at the library and give it the supervision he has been long accustomed to render. They hope, however, the time will soon come when he can resume his duties. The assistant, Mr. George R. Howell, has, however, given his time and talents to the care of the general library,, and the report which is generally appended to this report by Dr. Homes has been, it will be seen, prepared and presented by Mr. Howell.

For a full and definite account of the different departments of the library the trustees refer to the reports which have been made in regard to them and which are here appended.

Appendix I. Contains the report of the librarian of the general library.

Appendix II. Contains the report of the librarian of the law library.

Appendix III. Gives a list of the books and pamphlets added to the library by donation or exchange.

Appendix IV. Gives a catalogue of books added to the general library during the library year ending September 30, 1886.

Appendix V. Gives a catalogue of books added to the law library during the library year ending September 30, 1886.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID MURRAY,

Secretary.

APPENDIX I.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE GENERAL LIBRARY.

To the Regents of the University, Trustees of the State Library:

The number of volumes added to the general library during the twelve months ending September 30, 1886, is 2,130, making the whole number of volumes in this department of the library, 92,230. Of these 2,130 volumes, 1,270 were obtained by purchase, and 860 by donation or exchange.

The purchases for the library have been of that character designated by the trustees, chiefly of such works as relate to American history, biography and genealogy. Besides the valuable heralds' visitations published by the Harleian Society and received by the library, we have secured quite a number of similar private publications all of the utmost value in genealogical research for American families. Several valuable English county histories have also been obtained which are rich in genealogical information. Sixty-eight volumes of the Rolls publications and twenty-three volumes of calendars of State papers issued by the British government at a moderate price have been purchased bringing our series down to date. The publications of the Spalding Club, thirty-six in number, and those of the Surtees Society embracing seventy-six volumes have also been secured. All of these are valuable to those who are carrying their investigations of American general or family history back into the history of the mother country. Important additions have been made to the sets of Fraser's Magazine and The Temple Bar, both of which are indexed in Poole's general index to periodical literature and therefore frequently consulted.

The manuscript card catalogue of 1861 has been incorporated into the general manuscript catalogue which now fills 194 boxes.

There is a pressing need of making a manuscript, or, what is better, a type-writer copy of the catalogue of 1855 to be incorporated into the remaining portion of the general catalogue of the library, so that by consulting one catalogue it may be ascertained if a given book is, or is not, in the library.

All which is respectfully submitted.

GEORGE R. HOWELL,
Acting Librarian of General Library.

APPENDIX II.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN OF THE LAW LIBRARY.

STATE LIBRARY, December, 14, 1886.

To the Regents of the University of the State of New York:

The number of volumes added to the law department of the library during the year ending September 30, 1886, is 1,275, of which 607 volumes were acquired by purchase, and 668 volumes were acquired by donation and exchange.

Important additions have been made of American and British reports and law periodicals and of standard elementary works.

There have been added to the collection of statute law, twenty-five rare volumes of American statutes and thirty volumes of Canadian sessional acts. The usual number of publications have been received under the system of Inter-State and foreign exchange.

The Hon. Andrew S. Draper, of Albany, who was a member of the Court of Commissioners of Alabama claims, under the act of Congress of June 5, 1882, has presented to the law library a complete set of the printed papers in cases heard before that court. This gift is an exceedingly valuable one and renders well nigh complete our collection of papers connected with or growing out of the treaty of Washington of 1871, of which the law library now has the following:

1. A complete set of the printed papers presented to the Tribunal of Arbitration at Geneva in 1872, on behalf of the United States and of Great Britain. The English edition is bound in six folio volumes, and was presented to the library by Lord Tenterden of the British foreign office. The American edition comprises four octavo volumes, and was presented to the library by the State department at Washington.

2. A complete set of the printed papers in cases heard before the Mixed Commission on British and American claims under the twelfth article of the treaty of Washington, during the years 1872 and 1873. Nearly five hundred claims were heard by this commission, and the papers are bound in seventy-five octavo volumes. These papers were presented to the library by the Hon. Robert S. Hale, who was the counsel of the United States before the commission.

3. A complete set of the printed papers in cases heard before the Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims during the years 1874, 1875 and 1876, under the act of Congress of June 23, 1874. Two thousand and sixty-eight claims were heard before this court, and the papers are bound in fifty-five octavo volumes. These papers were presented to the library by the court.

4. After paying the awards allowed by the Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims of 1874, there still remained in the United States Treasury several millions of dollars of the Geneva award unappropriated. A large number of persons whose claims were not admissible under the act of 1874, laid claim to this fund and appealed to congress for relief. Their appeal resulted in the act of June 5, 1882 which re-established the court and enlarged its jurisdiction so as to admit several classes of claims which were excluded by the act of 1874. Five thousand seven hundred and seventy claims were heard by the new court during the years 1882, 1883, 1884 and 1885. The papers relating to these claims constitute the gift of Judge Draper to the library above referred to, and have been bound in one hundred and thirty-four octavo volumes.

Respectfully submitted,

STEPHEN B. GRISWOLD,

Librarian of the Law Library.

STATE OF NEW YORK.

No. 15.

IN SENATE,

SEVENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

NEW YORK STATE LIBRARY.

REPORT.

To the Legislature of the State of New York:

The Regents of the University, Trustees of the State Library, pursuant to the provisions of law, hereby submit to you their seventieth annual report, covering the year ending September 30, 1887.

The following summary will show the additions that have been made to the library, and also its present condition:

	Volumes.
At the beginning of the year October 1, 1886:
In the general library	92,230
In the law library	38,575
Total	130,805
Added during the year ending September 30, 1887:
To the general library	2,296
To the law library	1,292
Total	3,588
At the close of the year ending September 30, 1887:
In the general library	94,526
In the law library	39,867
Total	134,393
Of the additions to the library:
Acquired by purchase	2,265
Acquired by donation and exchange	1,323
Total	3,588

During the past year the library has been compelled to remain in the temporary quarters which were provided in it. In consequence of the contracted space which it is allowed to occupy, it has been impossible to expand it as much as under other circumstances would be feasible. Some additional shelving, made necessary by the increase in the number of volumes, and additional store-room for duplicates have been constructed.

It is important to call the attention of the Legislature to the condition of the duplicates belonging to the library. When, in 1883, the old library building was torn down, it was expected that the new quarters for the library would be ready within a year. Under these circumstances a room was fitted up in the basement to hold the duplicate volumes belonging to the library and the legislative documents which are entrusted to the care of the library. Long ago that room was entirely filled and the material in it packed in such a way as to be in a great part inaccessible. It has come to be one of the most important duties of the trustees of the library to provide a new and suitable place for these duplicates. It is the purpose of the trustees to use the two pavilions which are over the rooms to be occupied by the library as places where the duplicate stock of the library may be kept. But a small amount of expenditure would be necessary to place one of these pavilions in order. This could be done without in any measure interfering with the work which may be done upon the general preparation of the rooms which are designed for the library. The room has been examined and an estimate of the cost of making the necessary fittings for the purposes intended has been made, and it is estimated that rough shelving and partitions, such as would be suitable for the purpose, could be put up for a sum not exceeding seven hundred dollars.

If this can be done, the relief occasioned will be very great. Not only will it be possible to arrange the material in such a way that it will be possible to obtain what is sought for, but the material will be safe from the destructive causes which now are inevitable.

It is interesting to mention that some additional manuscripts connected with those that the library before possessed, have been secured. Professor Jameson, of the Johns Hopkins University, found it necessary in his historical researches to have copies made of the manuscripts left by Usselincx. These were additional to the Usselincx manuscripts possessed by the State Library, to which Professor Jameson had had access. After completing his historical work, Professor Jameson offered to sell to the library the manuscripts of which he had obtained copies. These were purchased from him and are now added to those which the library already owned. They go far towards making complete the records of the early discoveries of this country which the library now possesses.

For the usual operations of the library during the year, the trustees refer to the reports made to them by the librarians. They desire to express their high appreciation of the assiduity and ability with which, under the present embarrassments, the work has been conducted. The absence for the entire year of Librarian Homes threw a great amount of extra work upon the others connected with the library. The want of Dr. Homes' experience and activity has been most severely felt; at the same time these have been very far supplemented by the activity of others.

The absence for the entire year of Librarian Homes threw a great amount of extra work upon the others connected with the library. The want of Dr. Homes' experience and activity has been most severely felt; at the same time these have been very far supplemented by the activity of others.

Mention should be here made of the work which has been done during the past year upon the manuscripts in the possession of the State Library. Mr. Fernow has continued his services upon these manuscripts, and during the year has, under the authority of the Legislature, published a volume chiefly occupied with the military services of the citizens of the State during the Revolutionary War. This volume contains all that is known of the organization and composition of the regiments furnished by the State of New York in that war. The volume is already found to be of great interest and value to those who are studying the services of their ancestry in that great struggle.

During part of the past year Mr. George W. Kirchwey has been employed by the trustees in continuing and completing the work begun by Judge Clinton. This work, by the sudden death of Judge Clinton, was left in a condition which made it of very little use to historical investigators. Mr. Kirchwey is revising the calendar and index which Judge Clinton began. His work will render available the volume of manuscripts which compose the Clinton papers.

The trustees desire to make known to the Legislature the great loss which the library has sustained in the death of Dr. Henry A. Homes, the librarian of the general library. Dr. Homes was appointed an assistant in the State Library in 1854. Since that time he has devoted his time and energy to the management of this important trust. In 1857 he was appointed the librarian of the general library, Mr. Alfred B. Street being at the same time appointed librarian of the law library alone. Since that time Dr. Homes has continued without change as the librarian of the general library up to the time of his death, November 3, 1887. The trustees desire to express their great grief at the loss which the State has sustained, and their appreciation of the fidelity and ability with which he fulfilled his responsible duties. Since his death the trustees havereceived from all parts of the United States, and from European libraries, expressions of grief at the death of one who had come to be recognized as one of the chief librarians of the world.

H. R. PIERSON,

Chancellor.

APPENDIX I.

REPORT OF THE ACTING LIBRARIAN OF THE GENERAL LIBRARY.

To the Regents of the University, Trustees of the State Library:

The number of volumes added to the general library during the twelve months ending September 30, 1887, is 2,296, making the whole number of volumes in this department of the library, 94,526. Of these 2,296 volumes, 1,449 were obtained by purchase and 847 by donation or exchange.

During the past year the library has been greatly strengthened in the accession of English historical works that enable the American genealogist to carry on the investigations of family history previous to the early colonizing of the country. Notable among these are a number of heralds' visitations, giving the pedigrees of many English families having descendants in the State. Several English county histories have also been obtained which are needed by visitors and authors in search of genealogical information. Histories of counties and towns in the United States, and genealogies of American families are being rapidly published and are secured as early as possible, not only because of their importance, but because, owing to small editions and a growing demand, their commercial value rapidly increases. Such books are regarded important on account of the great number of citizens who call for them and the intensity of the desire back of the application. Several works on social science and political economy have been added to meet the wants of members of the Legislature, and several technical works to assist particularly some of the departments engaged in the service of the State. The State Library has already one of the best and most complete collections extant of works relating to the civil war, and every regimental history, not already in the library, that offered itself for purchase during the past year, has been obtained. These works are also rapidly increasing in price and scarcity for the same reasons that affect the value of local histories.

Among the notable purchases of the year is, first, a large and valuable addition to the Usselincx manuscripts, so important to a correct understanding of the colonial history of this State. In the report for 1884, Dr. Homes, in speaking of the purchases made at the sale of the library of Mr. Henry C. Murphy, says: "The most numerous and valuable of the whole are copies of papers and reports of Willem Usselincx, never yet printed." The purchase here mentioned includes 404 pages of folio manuscript, which cover the period from 1614 to 1646. During the past year another and similar collection of manuscripts, being copies of original documents at The Hague, written by, or relating to, Usselincx, was purchased of Mr. J. F. Jameson, of Baltimore. This purchase, covering a period from 1618 to 1649, includes 454 folio and 136 quarto pages, and the whole has been bound in three substantial volumes. Another important acquisition, to shed light on the early discoveries of America, is a fac-simile of the so-called Borgian map of 1529, now in the Vatican library, a broad sheet, fifty-seven by twenty-four inches, mounted on cloth. A rare copy of Ptolemy's Geography of 1511, also secured, contains a map, of much interest to students of the progress of discovery in America. Of similar interest are the Riflessioni geografiche of Vitalis Terra Rossa, containing claims for Venetian nobles of pre-Columbian discoveries in the Western World.

Two notable gifts of books to the State Library have been made: from Hon. Henry R. Pierson, a collection of United States and New York documents and miscellaneous volumes to the number of 232, and 227 pamphlets; from Dr. David Murray, a collection of 245 Japanese books, and eighty-two other volumes and 141 pamphlets. Many of these Japanese books are illustrated, and among them are works geographical, historical and educational.

The want of room to accommodate the British patents has compelled the closing of a portion of the western corridor and the erection of shelving within the inclosure, which, it is expected, will be sufficient to contain the accessions until the new apartments are ready for occupancy.

There is still need of a type-writer copy of the greater portion of the catalogue of 1855, to be incorporated into the great manuscript catalogue of the library, so that by consulting one catalogue it may be ascertained if a given book is, or is not, in the library.

All which is respectfully submitted,

GEORGE R. HOWELL,

Acting Librarian.

APPENDIX II.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN OF THE LAW LIBRARY.

STATE LIBRARY, November 10, 1887.

To the Regents of the University of the State of New York:

The number of volumes added to the law department of the library during the year ending September 30, 1887, is 1,292, which increases the total number of volumes in this department to 39,867. Of these 1,292 volumes, 816 were acquired by purchase, and 476 by donation and exchange.

The additions have been principally continuations of American and British reports, statutes, law periodicals and standard elementary works. The effort to supply deficiencies existing in the collection of American statute law has been continued, and has resulted in the addition of several rare volumes. Fifty-one collected volumes have been added to the collection of the proceedings of the boards of supervisors of the various counties of the State, which proceedings, by chapter 102 of the Laws of 1877, are required to be transmitted annually to the library by the clerks of the respective boards.

During the year an opportunity occurred whereby the British parliamentary papers for the sessions of 1842, 1843, 1852 to 1859, comprising 527 folio volumes, in good binding, were obtained for the library at a cost of less than the binding. The library is now in possession of these papers complete for the sessions of 1811 to 1832, 1842 to 1859, 1868 to 1886, making a collection of 2,200 folio volumes.

The use of the books in this department has been equal to the average use in previous years. More than the usual number of volumes have been delivered to the various State officers for temporary use in the discharge of their respective official duties.

Respectfully submitted,

STEPHEN B. GRISWOLD,
Librarian of the Law Library.

STATE OF NEW YORK.

No. 5.

IN SENATE,

JANUARY 9, 1889.

SEVENTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

NEW YORK STATE LIBRARY.

REPORT.

To the Legislature of the State of New York:

The Regents of the University, Trustees of the State Library, pursuant to the requirements of law, hereby submit to you their seventy-first annual report, covering the year ending September 30, 1888.

The chief event to be reported at this time in regard to the State Library is its expected transfer to the quarters provided by the State Legislature for its reception. The trustees of the library at their annual meeting in January, 1888, appointed a special committee, charged with the duty of bringing to the attention of the Legislature the subject of the completion of the rooms for the books of the State Library. This committee has labored with great earnestness and activity, and the progress of the work as we are now able to report it to you must be largely attributed to it. By chapter 578 of the Laws of 1888, an appropriation was made for finishing the rooms designed for the State Library. This law appointed the Lieutenant-Governor, the President pro tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the Assembly and the Commissioner of the New Capitol as supervising commissioners for this work. These commissioners at once began the work of planning and pushing forward to completion the preparation of the rooms for the library. They appointed Mr. Melvil Dewey, the librarian of the library of Columbia College, as their consulting librarian. Under his enthusiastic zeal and the care and fidelity of Commissioner Perry, the work has made great progress. At the time the Legislature will have met the rooms for the law library will be entirely finished, and we hope that the books of that department may be transferred to the place permanently designed for them. The work on the remaining part of the library is being pushed forward, and in a few weeks it is expected that the whole will be ready for occupancy.

In devising the plans it early became evident that it would be a great addition to the conveniences of the library if the rooms now occupied by the Regents of the University for their offices could be consolidated with the rooms already designed for the library. The entire west front of the Capitol on the third floor, from Washington avenue to State street, would then be a succession of rooms and alcoves for the use of the library.

The Regents of the University, who are trustees of the State Library, saw at once the importance of making this change. They unanimously, therefore, by a resolution passed at their semi-annual meeting in July, agreed to surrender the rooms that were then in their possession, taking instead the rooms upon the fourth floor. The library is now being fitted up with the purpose of occupying the entire space on the third floor, and a portion of the space above. The Regents will have for their offices the rooms directly over the ones now occupied by them.

The current operations of the library have gone forward with the usual regularity and activity. During the time when the work of preparing new rooms was in progress, it seemed to the trustees unwise to take any steps for filling the vacancy that was occasioned by the death of Dr. Homes, the librarian of the general library. That vacancy still exists.

The work in the general library has been performed by the chief assistant, Mr. G. R. Howell, who has acted as librarian. His report and that of Mr. S. B. Griswold, the librarian of the law library, are referred to for the details of the work that has been done. With the small amount of space available, it has been impossible to carry forward the increase in the books with as much activity as would have been otherwise possible. The system of exchanges, by which a large part of this increase is attained, has been in a great measure suspended owing to the crowded condition of the rooms in which the duplicates are kept.

No appropriation having been made for continuing the work upon the Clinton papers, that part of the operations of the library was discontinued when the old appropriation had been exhausted. It had been attempted to make a calendar of the papers from the beginning, and then to make an index by means of which reference might be made to any subject treated in these papers. Very material progress has been made in this work, but it is not yet completed and consequently is not in a condition to be made use of by those who wish to consult the papers. Whenever this can again be taken up no very great length of time will be required to put this important series of historical papers in a condition where they can be available for those who desire to consult them.

The accumulation of historical manuscripts in the library is a very notable portion of the collections. The library already contains the Sir William Johnson papers, the Vermont manuscripts, the Daniel D. Tompkins papers, the George Clinton papers, and the papers transferred to the State Library from the offices of the Comptroller and Secretary of State by chapter 120 of the Laws of 1887. In the arrangements for the rooms of the library, the trustees designed to make adequate provision for the care and completion of the work upon these historical papers. The collection of works in the library largely pertains to American history, and especially to the history of the portion of the United States now included in the State of New York. It may fairly be said of the library, to be one of its important functions to gather into one locality as many of the papers relating to the early history of the State and country as may be possible.

In connection with this subject, the trustees desire to report that in the last supply bill there was included an appropriation of $800 for the purpose of procuring copies of manuscripts relating to the early history of the country, which are now in the National Library at Paris, and in the national archives of the French government. A list of desirable papers was furnished to the trustees, and from these a selection was made and orders given for the copies which the library might make use of. A very considerable number of these papers have already been furnished, and the entire appropriation has been exhausted.

It is earnestly recommended that an additional appropriation of $500 be made for the purpose of procuring copies of some of the papers still remaining. It is very desirable that the State Library should contain as much of the material as possible relating to the early history of this country. The manuscript material in European libraries is a source, to a great extent as yet unexplored, of the events connected with the discovery and exploration of America. The State Library has already a very considerable stock of these historical documents, and it is one of the ends to which the policy of the library has been directed to equip it well with material bearing on American history.

The following is a list of the papers which have already been furnished:

1. Extrait du Journal des Services principaux de Paul Jones.

APPENDIX I.

REPORT OF THE ACTING LIBRARIAN OF THE GENERAL LIBRARY.

To the Regents of the University, Trustees of the State Library:

The number of volumes added to the general library during the twelve months ending September 30, 1888, is 2,434, making the whole number of volumes in this department of the library 96,960. Of these 2,434 volumes, 1,432 were obtained by purchase, and 1,002 by gift or exchange.

During the past year the library has been greatly strengthened in the acquisition of books on American history. This class of literature necessarily embraces works on prehistoric America, early discoveries, colonization and national, State, county and town history and biography, to the present day. Of these the most frequently and eagerly sought for by readers from all parts of the State are local histories and genealogies. The aim in purchasing, therefore, has been to secure all of the latter class of works as promptly as possible, inasmuch as every year adds to their commercial value. Such works as are of direct assistance to the various departments of the State government have been purchased to a moderate extent, and in their purchase regard has been had to the limited appropriation for the purchase of books and to the general instructions of the Regents in the building up of the library. A moderate purchase has also been made to supplement the encyclopedias on several subjects, such as electricity, political economy, literary history, costume and practical science. Long existing deficiencies in periodicals indexed in Poole's Index, and therefore frequently sought for, have in several works been supplied and the sets made perfect. Regimental histories relating to the civil war of 1861–65 are purchased as opportunity is presented, and the collection of the State Library on this subject is believed to be equal to that of any public library in existence.

The use of reference books in this department of the library has been gradually increasing, and must increase still more in the larger and more commodious apartments now being provided. The larger number of rooms thrown open to the public will require a corresponding increase of the staff of the library. The work of preparing a new subject index, which is recommended to be printed in 1890, should be begun during the coming year, and I would suggest that this should embody with the manuscript index of 1882 to 1889 the supplementary index published in 1882. Or, what might be still better, to incorporate the printed subject indexes of 1872 and 1882 with all subsequent manuscript additions into one volume.

All which is respectfully submitted.

GEORGE R. HOWELL,
Acting Librarian.

APPENDIX II.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN OF THE LAW LIBRARY.

STATE LIBRARY, December 1, 1888.

To the Regents of the University of the State of New York:

The number of volumes added to the law department of the library during the year ending September 30, 1888, is 1,364, which increases the total number of volumes in this department to 41,231. Of these 1,364 volumes, 866 were acquired by purchase, and 498 by donation and exchange.

The character of the books added has not varied materially from that of former years, a large part being continuations of American, British and Colonial reports, statutes, state papers, law periodicals and standard elementary works. The purchases have been strictly confined to those classes of books which your honorable body has, from time to time, indicated as desirable to be added to the library.

The effort to supply deficiencies existing in the collections of American statute law and law periodicals has been continued, and has resulted in the addition of nearly fifty rare volumes to these collections. It is not possible, within the limits of the present annual appropriation for the purchase of books, to purchase within any one year more than fifty of the volumes needed to supply existing deficiencies in the library collections.

The library is now in possession of the British parliamentary papers complete for the sessions of 1811 to 1832, 1842 to 1859, 1868 to 1886, making a collection of over 2,200 folio volumes. Since the session of 1868 these papers have been obtained by annual subscription. The sessions prior to 1868 have been obtained by purchase in large lots, as opportunity occurred, and paid for out of special appropriations made therefor by the Legislature. There is now an opportunity to purchase in London these papers for the years 1860 to 1867, comprising 523 folio volumes, for a sum which, together with the charges for transportation, will amount to about seven hundred dollars. In view of the fact that the addition of these years will complete the library collection of these papers from the year 1842 to the present time, the importance of obtaining them becomes apparent. The librarian would, therefore, recommend that an application be made to the next Legislature, by your honorable body, for a special appropriation of $700 for the purchase of these papers for the sessions of 1860 to 1867, inclusive.

During the past ten weeks, in addition to the ordinary service in the library, about 15,000 volumes have been dusted, rearranged by the librarian and assistants, and the entire law library put in readiness for its removal to the new apartments — an event which will gladden the hearts of those for whose use the library is maintained, and who have been subjected to most serious inconvenience during the five years of its occupancy of the present temporary quarters.

Respectfully submitted.

STEPHEN B. GRISWOLD,

Librarian of the Law Library.
